DETAILED ACTION

Claims 3,5,8-9,15-21 and 52 have been amended; all other claims have been canceled.

Information Disclosure Statement

- a. The information disclosure statements filed February 14, 2005, February 28, 2005, and March 12, 2005 have been considered.

Objection Maintained

1. Claims 3,5,8-9,15-21 and 52 are objected to for reciting improper Markush format, for reasons of record, as previously applied to claims 1-3, 9-11,22-23 and 52, in paper number 10182004, page 8, paragraph 4.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed January 24, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant asserts that all objections and rejections have been obviated through cancellation and amendment of the pending claims.
2. It is the position of the examiner that all pending claims now recite improper Markush format through the recitation of the term "and" a plurality of times; this is improper Markush format. Please see page 8, paragraph 4 for the original discussion of the improper Markush language. This objection was not addressed by amendment to remove formatting that is not consistent with Markush language.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1645
